negotiating loans or collecting payments or performing services for borrowers or lenders or note owners in connection with loans secured directly or collaterally by liens on real property or on a business opportunity.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

There is hereby incorporated in this First, separate and distinct, Cause of Action, all of the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 12, inclusive, of the Accusation with the same force and effect as if herein fully set forth.

14

Within the three-year period prior to the filing of this Accusation and at all times herein mentioned, in the course and scope of the activities described in Paragraph 12, above, Respondent RGI, doing business under the fictitious name of LOAN MODIFICATION CENTER OF AMERICA, Respondent SHAMIN RITTER, also doing business under the fictitious name of LOAN MODIFICATION CENTER OF AMERICA, and Respondent MARR, beginning on or about May 28, 2009, solicited and negotiated with Wilfredo and Consolacion D (hereinafter "Borrowers" or "Borrowers D") to perform services for Borrowers D in connection with loans secured directly or collaterally by liens on said Borrowers' California real properties identified as 418 Camino Hermoso and 12622 Robison Blvd., wherein Respondents provided to Borrowers D a written contract for an advance fee, and on or about June 1, 2009, claimed, demanded, charged, received, and collected an advance fee of $3,000.00, and on June 10, 2009, claimed, demanded, charged, received, and collected an additional advance fee of $2,000.00, from Borrowers for services Respondents were to perform thereafter, representing to Borrowers by way of said contract that in exchange for said advance fees Respondents would submit borrowers information to Borrowers' lenders and that Respondents would "use best efforts to obtain a mortgage modification for the Borrowers."

The fees described in Paragraph 14, above, constituted an "advance fee" within the meaning of Section 10026 of the Code ("Advance Fee" is fee claimed, demanded, charged, received, collected or contracted from principal for listing, for offer to sell or lease property or business opportunity, for referral to brokers or salesmen, for soliciting borrowers or lenders, for negotiating real estate loans) and 10131.2 of the Code (Real estate broker is a person who engages in business of claiming, demanding, charging, receiving, collecting or contracting for advance fees in connection with any employment to promote sale, lease of real property or business opportunity, or exchange or to obtain loans on real property). Said fees constituted trust funds within the meaning of Section 10145 of the Code (broker accepts funds belonging to others in connection with acts requiring a real estate license) and Section 10146 of the Code (advance fees collected by broker are trust funds).

In connection with the collection, receipt, and handling of the advance fees as described in Paragraphs 14 and 15, above, Respondents RGI, SHAMIN RITTER and MARR provided to the Borrowers D a written advance fee contract that had not been submitted to, reviewed, and approved by, the Department of Real Estate prior to use as required by Sections 10085 of the Code (unlawful to claim, demand, receive advance fee for soliciting lenders on behalf of or performing services for borrowers using an advance fee agreement not approved by Department) and Chapter 6, Title 10, California Code of Regulations (hereinafter "Regulations), Section 2970 (requiring submission to commissioner for approval of all advance fee materials and agreements).

Within the three-year period prior to the filing of this Accusation, in connection with the collection, receipt and handling of advance fees described in Paragraphs 14 and 15, above, Respondents RGI, SHAMIN RITTER and MARR failed to deposit said funds into a trust account in the name of RGI as trustee or into a trust account in the name of SHAMIN RITTER
